FORTY-SEVEN BOYS AND GIRLS GRADUATE FROM INTER-MEDIATE SCHOOL

The graduation exercises of the Glendale Intermediate school was held in the Third street school auditorium on Friday night, when forty-seven girls and boys said goodbye to their grammar school days. This is the largest mid-year class ever graduated from the Intermediate school. The stage, attractively decorated in greenery, presented a pleasing background for the group of young people who received their diplomas, the girls dressed in the class colors, with white middie suits and red hair ribbons and middy ties, and the boys wearing red neckties. The table on the center of the stage bore a large bouquet of red and white carnations and a bowl of red geraniums and ferns at each end of the stage carried out the class colors as well as completing the pleasing touch of color given by the large American flag that graced the back of the stage. Richardson D. White, principal of the Intermediate school and supervising principal of the Glendale schools, presided. The program for the evening opened with a selection by the Intermediate orchestra, "The Evening Hour," by Albert Kussner. The work of these young musicians of the school reflects great credit upon their efficient teacher, Miss Marguerite Weatherby, who is the special instructor of music in the Glendale schools. Two pretty vocal selections by the girls of the graduating class followed, "On Wings of Music" by Felix Mendelssohn, and "Go Pretty Rose" by Theo. Marzials.

Mr. White then introduced the speaker of the evening, Prof. Tully C. Knowles, professor of history of the University of Southern California, who presented a very able and thoughtful address. He dwelt on the war conditions of the world and the possibilities of achieving a lasting world peace, and emphasized the thought that the only lasting world peace we can have must be built upon the character and morality of the people. A violin solo, "Romance" by Johan Svendsen, played by Forrest Jordan, showed considerable talent for so young a musician and was heartily encored. Mrs. Charles Hulbert Toll, president of the board of grammar school trustees, with a few pleasing remarks, presented the diplomas to the young graduates. She spoke of the growing need for education in the higher standards of efficiency demanded by the business and industrial world to-day and told the young graduates she would look forward to four years from now and hoped then to see all those who stood before her receiving their diplomas from the high school then. Another selection, "Basket of Roses" by Fred G. Albers, was given by the Intermediate orchestra, followed by a song by the class of 1917, "The Heavens Resound," arranged from Beethoven by Remick, the class closing the program with their own Intermediate school song.

The graduating class includes the following:

AUTO ACCIDENT

Mr. Charles I. Pierce of 1428 West Seventh street was the victim of an automobile accident Friday evening at 6:25, when he was struck by a car driven by F. Hoopes of this city. Mr. Pierce was crossing Central avenue at Colorado street and Mr. Hoopes was driving south on Central. Just how the accident happened has not been learned. Mr. Pierce was picked up by two men in a passing auto and taken to the Glendale sanitarium, where he was found to be in a serious condition. Among his other injuries he suffered two compound fractures of the left leg. As the injured man is seventy years of age, the accident will go hard with him.

Hoopes is the young man who was riding with Sam Merriken when they collided with a truck on West Colorado street a few months ago.

DEATH OF FLOWER BABY

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flower of 526 South Adams street, whose infant son was taken from them Friday morning. He had been ill a week with pneumonia and release from suffering came yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Little James H. Flower was one year, three months and five days old. He was the grandson of J. H. Flower of Glendale. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Flower home on South Adams street, and were conducted by Rev. B. Dudley Snudden, the Jewel City Undertaking Company being in charge. The remains were laid to rest in Forest Lawn cemetery.

CIVIC CENTER LECTURE

SUPERINTENDENT OF PLAYGROUND COMMISSION GIVES ADDRESS

Fifty-seven beautiful and interesting slides, described with a vigor and freshness of language by Wm. Raitt, superintendent of the Los Angeles Playground Commission, kept the audience spellbound on Thursday evening. This lecture, under auspices of the Glendale Garden Society, proved a revelation of civic recreation center ideas, and enthused every man, woman and child present. Everywhere communities are finding that it is cheaper to have playgrounds than jails, wiser to pay for supervised recreation than to allow young manhood and womanhood to drift to commercialized pool rooms, dance halls and other forms of unsupervised, ill-regulated amusements. Mr. Raitt spoke of two kinds of bars, illustrating his meaning by pictures: the horizontal bar (typifying gymnasium work) and the saloon bar; the young man who frequents the first mentioned bar will rarely ever patronize the saloon bar. In Glendale both bars are barred; but the saloon bar and its attendant evils are easily reached by the young manhood of Glendale. The lecturer showed pictures of various forms of activities promoted by playground and civic recreation center management, or rather, leadership; amongst them being kite making and kite flying occasions, and imitation amongst the growing lads of the Knights of King Arthur. Great interest was displayed in pictures illustrating clubs for young women, and for mothers; truly delightful to see mothers clad in attractive gymnasium costumes, relaxing from household cares, becoming young and supple once more. May Day festivals and community gatherings in community club houses foster a community spirit and create a brotherhood of civic pride and healthy civic ambition.

Mr. H. H. Faries of Glendale spoke briefly but most earnestly on the necessity of a Civic Recreation center for the young men of this town. He urged immediate action to secure in some way a meeting ground with adequate facilities for the young fellows who crave for some place to go, and to whom no place is offered in Glendale. Mr. Faries' remarks produced a serious impression upon his hearers, for he spoke with conviction and from his heart.

GARDEN SOCIETY PLANT-GRAB

The Plant-Grab held after the Civic Center lecture on Thursday evening was most successful. The gardens of Miss Olive Williams, Mrs. Frank Hester, Mrs. Chas. H. Toll, Freeman Kelley, Mr. McElroy, Mr. J. H. Woods and Mrs. H. C. Ackley yielded a rich assemblage of plants and bulbs; and these ladies and gentlemen are herewith heartily thanked for their generosity.

The next meeting of the Garden Society will be a social informal affair on Thursday evening, February 15, in the library of the Third street school, when tea will be served and some music enjoyed.

The bill passed the house by a two to one vote last week and the bill passed the state Senate yesterday by a vote of 38 to 11. The bill will be promptly signed by Governor Goodrich and the state will become dry April 2, 1918.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

TWENTY-FIVE HUNDRED TEACHERS OF COUNTY COMPRISE LEGION OF LIGHT

By Walt. Le Noir Church

Not counting private schools, parochial schools and schools of special institutions, there are in the public schools of Los Angeles County alone, over twenty-five hundred teachers. What a veritable "Legion of Light," expelling the spirits of Darkness, in a way swifter, more according to Natural law and, therefore, more efficient than has ever been done before in that great irrepressible conflict between the powers of Truth and Error, Right and Wrong, the Constructive and the Destructive.

It is an honor to belong to such a Legion—to be one of those dauntless legionaries in any capacity whatsoever. Along that steady firing line of wisdom-warriors, there is no unimportant employment—no unhonored position, from the greatest even unto the least.

Once upon a time, as the legend goes, there was a great Emperor who suddenly awakened to the fact that he needed more money than was available to do many desirable things for his people. Then he remembered the legend that a great treasure was concealed in a dark, deep cellar beneath his throne room. He called on his chief engineer to get the darkness out of that cellar so he could get the treasure.

The engineer put a large troop of servants to work, filling bags with the darkness and taking it out of the cellar. But there was so much darkness, they seemed to make no headway. After consultation with pundits, scientists, astrologers, and hermits, and even clairvoyants, he reported to the Emperor that there must be a leak of darkness from below, coming up from the center of the earth. His advice was to place a cement partition all around and under the cellar, so no darkness could leak in; then they would soon empty the cellar. The emperor gave his signet ring to the engineer, saying: "Do whatever is needed—only get that darkness out, pronto."

At great expense, the cement partition was put in, and made "absolutely darkness-proof," so the inspectors reported. But though the force of workmen was doubled, carrying out darkness in bags, as never before within the memory of man, still the cellar remained dark, and the vast treasure remained unavailable. The Emperor was about to have almost everybody beheaded, after the manner of his ilk, when word came that The Little Old Wise-woman who lived under the hill would get that darkness out, if authorized. The Emperor did not believe it; but just to be nice to a lady he sent her his signet ring and told her to get results in any way she could.

She lighted a very brilliant lamp she had, with reflectors on all sides thereof. Carrying that lamp, she walked into the cellar and behold, the darkness fled before her, out through the cement partition, the walls, any way; but it went. Then did the servants carry out treasure in their bags to the Emperor; and there was great joy. Now, every Teacher in the Legion of Light carries such a lamp and helps to make the great treasure available for mankind.

It seems almost inconceivable that the Glendale Union High School started in 1901 with but two teachers and 28 pupils, holding its sessions in the old sanitarium, then vacant and in charge of a keeper. All around was an open country with farms, very much resembling certain rich regions of Nebraska and Iowa, over which the writer rode, hunting and fishing. There were no autos then—no railroad to Glendale except the Salt Lake. But the horse, the mule, the carriage and the ox-chariot then sufficed.

One great thing about education is that it continually demonstrates how little we know compared to what there is to learn. With all our advantages now, it is to be hoped that within the next sixteen years our Glendale Union High School of today will be looked back to by those who "point with pride" as a very creditable beginning.

The higher one climbs the Hill of Knowledge, the grander the view and the more good trails are seen to the present horizon.

May it be ever so.

AUTOS COLLIDE

Saturday morning, the Tropico Transfer truck and Gus Pulliam's touring car collided near Broadway and Brand. No one was injured and but little damage was done to the machines, with the exception of a bent mudguard on the touring car driven by Mr. Pulliam.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

It is indeed interesting to note how greatly people of intelligence will differ as to their views upon a question. There is at present a difference of opinion among intelligent people as to the best methods of education. People differ as to what branches should constitute a "high school course," and they differ as to the time that should be spent upon the various branches.

The man who learns to have respect for the other man's view on all questions is a man who has the qualifications for being a good citizen.

FORGIVE AND FORGET

It is not a sign of strong character and manliness for a person to boast of the fact that he never forgives or forgets a supposed injustice done him by another person. Words are spoken in a hurry often and were it possible to recall them they would be recalled. Human beings are not divine, they are subject to mistakes, and this being true it is wisdom on the part of the person who thinks himself wronged to forgive and forget.

Why cherish in the heart malice and hatred on account of the actions of someone whose general attitude toward you is one of kindness? What difference will these little variances in opinions make a hundred years in the future?

While each individual has a mission to perform in life, yet considered singly man is not of great importance in this world. Many people of many ways are factors in making up this busy world, and each individual should not be too much set upon having special attention devoted to him. Bear in mind there are others whose interests are to be considered.

EDITORIAL WRITING

Not many months ago a trained editorial writer assured a newspaper publisher, to whom he was making application for a position that he could write editorials without the reader being able to detect the views of the paper on the subject under discussion. A newspaper without views should be ranked with a spineless species of animals. While it is unwise for a newspaper to be too quick in expressing opinions on all subjects, yet it is a satisfaction for readers of a paper to know something about the principles and views of the editor of the paper which they are reading.

The editor of a newspaper is supposed to be in a position to know the social, religious, educational and municipal needs of the city in which he resides. The wideawake editor of a paper is ever on the alert to keep himself informed on all subjects, and when there arises a difference of opinion on important community questions the editor of poise and good judgment should be able to command the respect of his readers as to the stand he takes upon the question before the people.

The editor of a paper should be slow to express views upon subjects that are two sided and upon which the people for thousands of years have agreed to disagree. As to what mode of baptism is preferable or what position a person should be in when offering prayer, are too complex subjects to be considered by a country editor. Every editor is wise in advocating good citizenship, honesty in business and judicious municipal progress. It is the duty of every newspaper editor to so conduct the policy of the paper of which he has the management that he will win and retain the good will and respect of the people with whom he comes in contact.

Facts and Comment

A possum was caught in the river bottom at Pico the first of the week by J. D. Durfee, who lives just north of Pico. The animal is said to be rare in this part of the country and Mr. Durfee believes he has the only one of its kind in captivity.

Contracts are already being made for Malaga grapes in the Imperial valley. A sale has been concluded at Meloland of forty acres for $35 a ton on the vines. A sale of 20 acres near Holtville has been arranged for at the same price.

Otto R. Roedder, a 14-year-old boy of Alhambra, has planned and built a home for his mother with the aid of his two younger brothers, aged 13 and 10. It is a six room house and the local paper pronounces it an improvement to Campbell avenue, Alhambra, and the family moved in on January 25.

The Methodists of Monrovia have inaugurated a new kind of "bee." A planting bee was scheduled for today, when an army of volunteer gardeners gathered to aid in improving the church grounds by planting shrubbery, flowers and vines, clearing the ground first and preparing it for planting later in the spring.

A new orange marmalade factory is to be started in Monrovia by Harry L. Ferguson, formerly factory manager of the Ferguson Marmalade Company of that place. Mr. Ferguson states that he has perfected an orange marmalade that is superior to anything yet marketed and in addition has produced an orange cream, similar in consistency and purpose to marshmallow whip. A consignment of 25,000 paper containers has been ordered from the east.

PREDICTS A DRY UNITED STATES BY 1918

(By United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—That the entire United States will be voted dry by the end of 1917 was the prediction here today of the Anti-Saloon league of America. The claim is based on the following:

Pending dry legislation will be passed at the present session of congress, as a result of the "undisputed" growth of public sentiment in favor of it, and the 139 new house of representative members will swell the ranks of the "197 members of the house who favored the Hobson National Prohibition bill."

Many of them, it is pointed out, have been elected from states which have recently "gone dry" or have declared their intention of so doing. Virginia, Alabama, Iowa, Nebraska and Michigan have adopted prohibition laws since the vote was taken in congress on the Hobson constitutional amendment bill.

"It is reasonable to assume the movement will have all of the congressional votes of these states—a gain of 15."

TRUE TO LIFE

"Tell me honestly," said the novel reader to the novel writer, "did you ever see a woman who stood and tapped the floor impatiently with her toe for several moments, as you describe?"
"Yes," was the thoughtful reply, "I did once."
"Who was she?"
"She was a clog dancer."—Tit-Bits.

When we hear a man bragging about his charity we size him up as the sort of a fellow who drops a nickel in a blind man's tin cup and then takes two pencils out of the blind man's hat.

STUDIES IN PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

By Walt. Le Noir Church
STUDY XVI. WHAT CAUSES FAILURE?

Yesterday's study contained the suggestion that to-day a question would be asked. It is a vital question, paramount not only to teachers and pupils of any and all schools, but to every person in Glendale or vicinity who is interested, directly or indirectly, in any kind of business or employment.

You are right. I might as well have said Every-body; and let it go at that.

That simple but most important question is: "What is the measure of your value to your employer, or to your community, or to yourself?" Did you know that value could be stated in algebraical form, so each one of you could solve your own problem?

It would take this form: V equals (W—E).

Expanded, that would read: Your Value equals your Work minus Errors. From whatever point of view you consider it, you must come back to that final admission.

It means that if you made no errors, your work would be perfect of its kind; and so you would be entitled to, and would get if you demanded it, the highest compensation paid for that kind of work.

But we may go a step farther with our algebraical statement. V equals W—(E of C plus E of O).

That reads: Your Value equals your Work minus your Errors of Commission plus your Errors of Omission.

It may be stated that there are no other kinds of errors.

That is to say, if you never did anything that is prohibited in your Work and never Omitted anything Commanded in that Work, it would be perfect, that is, the best of its kind.

Now then: if the value of all your work (no matter how high or low your station) depends in the final analysis on your errors, is it not of vital importance to find out as quickly as possible just exactly what causes errors?

It may be stated with perfect as-urance that every error which ever happened in any human effort had a common cause.

Then the discovery of that common cause and its speedy elimination becomes of primary importance.

Extending our formula, we have: V equals W—E(C plus O) equals P—N equals E equals A plus R plus E plus A equals success.

That reads: Your value equals your Work minus your Errors of Commission plus your Errors of Omission, all of which will equal the sum of your POSITIVE qualities minus the sum of your NEGATIVE qualities employed in that work; which in turn equals the sum of all your Education, which is represented by your AREA, or the sum total of your ABILITY plus your Reliability plus your ENDURANCE plus your ACTION; all which determines the kind, amount and degree of your SUCCESS, the object of all endeavor.

Assuming the truth of that statement, the study of your own individual Success formula should give you the key to more rapid and more stable advancement than you have ever consciously made before, whether you are a pupil in a Grammar School, a High School, a College, a University, or in the greater School of Outside-life from which no one ever is graduated on this earth.

To-morrow, we will go further into details, discussing that great problem on which so much depends for YOU, whoever you are—what ever be your ambition in life, from peasant to prince; from porter to president of a bank, a railroad, a nation or of the long-hoped-for Federation of the World.

Meanwhile, why not try to see how far you can work out that formula to apply to your individual case. The more of it you do for yourself the greater the benefit you will derive therefrom.

It would give me pleasure to answer, in my own way, any question sent to me by any reader of The Glendale Evening News.

CARRANZA LEAVES PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR AT HOME FOR FIRST TIME

CIUDAD JUAREZ, Chih., Mex., Feb. 3.—For the first time since he seized the power as First Chief Carranza has left the fateful presidential chair in Mexico City. In his numerous journeys over the country he has always carried the "phantom chair" with him. When he came to Queretaro to attend the constitutional convention now in session he left the chair in the palace.

As the symbol of power the chair has a romantic history. Out of the turmoil of bloody revolutions eleven men have attained the chair. One was assassinated, two died in foreign lands and most of the others are in exile.

At one time Pedro Lascurain occupied the chair as president for forty-five minutes. He was forced from the throne by Huerta.

The chair is simply unholstered in red plush. The symbolic golden eagle clutching a serpent is the only decoration. Yet it is the dream of every ambitious Mexican from jefe to general.

You often need a chair, a table, a bed, mattress or some article of furniture to fill in with your regular furnishings. Get it in Glendale at the Glendale Housefurnishing Co., 417 S. Brand.

LA CANADA

The next meeting of La Canada Parent-Teachers' Association will be held Friday afternoon, February 9, when Miss Mitschke, head of the county nurses, will address the men and women of the valley.

Miss Mitschke is a clear thinker and a woman with a practical working knowledge of the subject she will handle next Friday: "The School Child; His Health." She is speaking on this and kindred topics in the schools throughout the county and is doing an excellent work in setting forward the work along these lines. Long experience in the city of Cincinnati, where she was instrumental in introducing many innovations of benefit to the school child, has given her the practical insight and methods necessary to the successful handling of so important a work.

This will probably be the last meeting at which the present president of the association will preside, as she expects to leave the valley very soon to take up her residence in the San Fernando valley, where Mr. Guidinger has purchased a ranch. For this reason and because the afternoon promises features well worth turning out to hear, it is hoped there will be a large attendance. There will be music and a social tea hour following, and everyone in the valley, as well as from La Crescenta district is invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Guidinger of Burr avenue have concluded the deal for a ten-acre lemon and orange ranch in the San Fernando valley and will move there in the course of a month or so to take up their residence. The new property is located one-half mile south of Pacoima station and one mile from the town of San Fernando. The Guidingers will dispose of only part of their holdings in the valley, however, planning to retain the smaller cottage on their Burr avenue property, which they will renovate and enlarge for a sort of "vacation" or week-end home—a place to come to once in a while, when they get hungry for a glimpse of the grand old Sierra Madre or the just as lovely chaparral-covered Verdugo hills, and to renew the acquaintance of their many friends in La Crescenta.

Mr. D. J. Green expects his brother here from Missouri within a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Scott and Miss Tappens have been spending the last week in Long Beach.

Miss Helen Cooper entertained Misses Dorothy Lester, Edwina Caldwell and Mr. Marion Lea at dinner Sunday. A delightful course dinner was served and those present are praising Miss Cooper's excellent cooking.

Miss Lulu Green attended a boudoir shower Saturday in Glendale in honor of Miss Jamie Ray, a dear old school friend of Miss Green's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cooper, Mr. Edwin Cooper and Miss Rowena Green were the dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conner in Venice. A delicious dinner and pleasant time were reported.

The Christian Endeavorers had a very interesting meeting Sunday evening. Mr. Robert Cooper led the meeting and the topic was "The Fruits of the C. E. Tree." Don't forget the meeting this Sunday evening at 6:00 p. m.

Mrs. J. P. Anderson has been quite ill at her home the past two weeks. She is now improving and hopes soon to be out among her friends again.

The Sunland school came to La Canada ball diamond Saturday and played the La Canada grammar school boys in a game of baseball. The Sunland boys went home very happy because they were victors of the day. Mr. Max Green was umpire of the game.

Mrs. McMullin attended a surprise party on her daughter, Mrs. Franklin, last week. A most pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Armstrong entertained their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Mason and son of Hollywood, Sunday at dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore have moved into the house owned by Mr. Hanna on Roy avenue. It is hoped they will like their new location.

SUNLAND

Mrs. Frank Corey was a guest of Mrs. Walker of Glendale over Sunday.

Dr. J. Whytock of Glendale, presented Mr. L. T. Rowley with "a wee bit of heather fra auld Scotland near Sterling." Mr. Rowley is proud of his Scotch ancestry and prizes the heather very highly.

Mr. Gra Folla of Los Angeles has rented the Branstetter ranch on Summit avenue and moved in this week and is busy pruning the peach trees.

Mrs. J. B. Graham of Los Angeles spent a few days with her sons, Mr. J. E. and Will Graham, at their homes in Sunland.

Mrs. J. E. Graham's ranch is getting to be a resort for luncheon parties. This week Miss Emma Saxton and Miss White entertained at the Graham ranch at lunch Dr. and Mrs. Corwin, Mrs. Merrel and C. A. French.

Mrs. L. J. Freeman is very ill with la grippe.

We are glad to hear Mr. Geo. Hitchcock is getting better. He has had a very severe attack of rheumatism.

The trustees of the church made a payment of $13.95 on the church debt this week. The remaining debt is only $137.00. When this is paid the church will be ready to make improvements. Let everybody help a little and wipe out this debt. Leave donations with Mrs. Huse, church collector, or Wm. Lancaster, treasurer.

Everybody is working hard to make the bazar to be given by the Monte Vista School Improvement club Feb. 9th a success. Besides the music by the band and orchestra Mrs. Max Green of La Canada will give a reading and Miss Lulu Lanterman will give a vocal selection. Everybody will have a good time. Come.

The Sunland grammar school team crossed bats with the La Canada school team Saturday on the La Canada diamond. Sunland team did some fine playing. Roland Percy made a home run. The score stood 13 to 7 in favor of Sunland.

Mr. Iven Spinny of Pasadena was the guest at the home of Mr. Lancaster Sunday.

Mrs. C. Beckmeyer of Los Angeles spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. C. Spencer on Summit avenue.

The Sunland Christian Endeavor was invited to a birthday C. E. celebration at Tujunga Sunday afternoon. Quite a delegation attended and report a very interesting and enthusiastic meeting. The Tujunga C. E. young people are a live wire bunch and are doing fine work under the leadership of Mrs. Malone.

The committee on securing right of way for the state highway through Sunland report very satisfactory results of their work the past week.

These beautiful days bring hundreds of tourists and sightseers through Sunland and a great demand is being made for small acreage and home home places. Who has anything to sell? List with Mrs. Huse at the postoffice.

The Sunland students at the Glendale High School are burning the midnight oil this week preparing for the mid year examinations.

The oranges and lemons are being marketed this week. The prices are not as satisfactory as the growers would like.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blumfield motored to Hollywood and spent a very pleasant evening with Mrs. Rice, daughter of Mrs. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Adams Jr. made a business trip to Nordoff Friday and returned home Saturday night.

The Christian Endeavor will give a box social Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Fred Herron.

Mr. J. J. Johnson was down from Pirn this week.

Will the parties finding the chain, strap and stake lost from a horse this week return it to the postoffice and receive reward.

The business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church was held at the room back of the postoffice Thursday, Feb. 1. Report of the treasurer showed a balance of $14.22 in the treasury. The next social meeting will be entertained by Mrs. Adams Jr. and Mrs. Richardson Feb. 22.

Mr. Paul Johnson has taken over the Tribune route from Mr. Ezra Teetsworth and will have your Tribune to you early in the morning.

It's a long way to Sacramento, It's a long way to go.

It's a long way from sunny southland, The sweetest place we know. Our greetings to the north land, Farewell Southland dear.

It's a long long way to Sacramento But we're glad we're here.

With this song sung by thirty-two commercial secretaries from Los Angeles, San Bernardino, Orange and Riverside counties they announced their arrival at the annual convention held at Sacramento Jan. 23 to 26.

At the theater where they were the guests of Sacramento Chamber of Commerce the orchestra played their accompaniment. All had a splendid time and though the north land could never call loud enough to win them permanently the spirit of Sacramento hospitality will not be forgotten.

The delegates were feasted at their house, shown the great gold dredges in action, the reclamation of the lowlands, and some were allowed a taste of the hospitality of Folsom prison. The first vice president, Mr. Ballard of Long Beach, and three of the advisory council are from the southland and the next annual meeting will be at Long Beach.

Our secretary, Mr. S. T. Rowley, returned from this convention Sunday, having had a delightful time. But he thinks Sunland is the best place of all.

SAVING MILLIONS A MONTH ON TOMMY'S SHOES

By William Philip Simms, United Press Correspondent

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Jan. 15.—(By Mail.)—What becomes of the millions and millions of shoes worn by the British armies. Tommy must be resoled every two months.

England's shoe bill is millions of dollars a month and anything which can double the life of a shoe means an enormous saving to the government.

Out here there is an institution which comes pretty near doubling Mr. Boot's life. I have just been through it. Scores of thousands of shoes in crock sacks were being unloaded from freight cars on a siding and the officer commanding said he had to get these clear so another lot of 250,000 more could have the space commencing next day.

For each million soldiers in the British armies, say, a million pairs of shoes are issued about every two months. Estimating the cost per pair the total would be $3,000,000. If instead of repairing these boots, new ones were issued, this would mean $3,000,000 worth of boots every two months for each 1,000,000 men. The repairs cost considerably less than a dollar per pair, therefore the economy realized by the shops is over $2,000,000 each two months per million men, or over a million dollars every 30 days.

First, the shoes are sorted according to the three sizes in the army, cleaned of mud and dirt, then inspected to see whether they can be mended. If not, their tops become shoe laces and the remains of their carcasses burned in the boiler furnaces, help turn the wheels which make their cold brothers into new boots.

Boots successfully by this first inspection pass on to others for heels, soles, steel studs and other wear proofing.

Finally, the boot with all necessary materials, arrives at the machines, frequently American-made machines. A sole is nailed on in about five seconds, the nails automatically bradging inside. The sewing is done about as quickly, but nailed soles are preferable as water tends to creep in past the stitches.

Now the lasts are taken out and the boots go to the oilers where they are water proofed. The footwear are put bodily into vats of a special liquid grease and left for about ten minutes, this work being done by women who receive higher wages than ordinary work women on account of the unpleasant nature of their tasks.

The boots are now as good as new. They are ready for another two months hard wear.

Dr. Dane Hurlbert of Les Trenes Leyesen, Switzerland, is acting for colonists who are planning to settle in Santa Barbara and states that at the close of the war there will be a general influx from Europe and the Swiss desire to secure lands in advance. It is estimated that several hundred will arrive during the first month after the war closes.

Believer." Come and let us encourage you.

WEST GLENDALE METHODIST CHURCH

C. A. Norcross, Pastor.

"Asleep at His Post." Were you ever guilty of such an act? Peter was. You will hear all about it at the evening service. Come and enjoy the "Big Sing" and hear about Peter's mistake. The morning thought will be on the subject, "The Christian's Love." This sermon will be a great help to all Christian people. The Epworth League will have a good leader and subject. The young folks are invited. Have you visited the Sunday school lately? We will be glad to see you. Strangers will receive an old fashioned hand shake.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Dollars and Sense" is the subject of a special address during the Sabbath school hour. All should hear it. The hour is 9:30. At 11 o'clock the subject is "Alabaster Boxes." Evening 7:30. GREAT ORANGE SHOW

All Railroads have ordered fare and a third rates from all points in California, Arizona and Nevada to San Bernardino for the National Orange Show, to be held there February 20 to 28.

The order for the reduced rates is made as the result of the widespread interest in the citrus fruit exposition, according to the traffic officials of the road. It is the first time any attraction outside of an international or state exposition has been granted excursion rates from neighboring states.

There will be many thousands of easterners at the Orange Show, according to information from the railroad companies. The fame of the exposition has spread throughout the country, and many of the tourists already in California or coming have arranged their itineraries so they will be at the Orange Show.

Both of the big canvas auditoriums to house the exposition are now in place and within a few days hundreds of workmen will begin the final rush to install the great fruit displays that are coming from all parts of California.
